Winter 2010

Knit Michigan

- Don't forget Knit Michigan is coming up on February 6. You can sign up today at www.knitmichigan.com or just come for the day between 10-3.
- If you're making chemo caps to donate, please drop them off by next Friday, February 5, so we can take them to the event. Thanks to all who have donated!

What's New

Winter Hours

Tuesday and Wednesday are now by appointment only. Please call 586-727-9097 or email us at goldenewe@gmail.com to set an appointment.

Thursday and Fridays are now noon to 5 p.m.

Saturday remains 10-4.

New in the Shop

- Individual patterns, including some hats, mittens, sweaters, and more!

- Mary Scott Huff's new book, Stranded Colorwork
- Alpaca Roving in 4 stunning natural colors
- Sea-Air Arts glass buttons. These are gorgeous and locally made! Check out their link on our webpage.
- New samples including a knit cape in Brown Sheep Bulky Weight, Neckwarmer in superwash worsted weight and another neckwarmer in sock yarn, plus a bib made from Amazing corn fiber yarn.

Ewe, Me, and the Wheel

Come see what it's all about!

If you're looking for a fellow spinner, we have now formed a group to sit and spin once a month—Ewe, Me, and the Wheel. We will meet on February 13 from 10 a.m.–noon. If you're not a spinner, stop by and see what it's all about. We'll be glad to show you!

Join us on Ravelry...

Are you familiar with Ravelry? It's the amazing online fiber arts community. You can find it at www.ravelry.com.

On Ravelry, you can keep track of your project, show them off, search for patterns and yarns, or meet lots of new people. Best of all, there are many groups for you to join covering almost any topic you can imagine (fiber, knitting, crochet, books, tv shows, and your favorite yarn shops).

And speaking of your favorite yarn shop, we have our own group on Ravelry. It's simply called "Golden Ewe." Check it out and chat with us!
